From Tails of Help to Tales of Hope: Canada's National Veterinary Association Convention Offers Support to Local Alberta Charity

CALGARY, Alta. - The Canadian Veterinary Medical Association president opens the exhibit hall of the annual Convention with a goal to support Tails of Help during the three-day event. Tails of Help is a charity that helps fund essential veterinary care for ill or injured pets of owners who are experiencing financial hardship.

The national veterinary convention is Canada's only national multi-species continuing education event for veterinary professionals that includes more than 40 highly-rated speakers from Canada, the United States and overseas. The convention is held in partnership with the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association, and in collaboration with the Registered Veterinary Technologists and Technicians of Canada.

WHEN: Friday, July 17, 2015

TIME: 5:15 p.m. (Central)
