

Figure S1: 12 weeks (left) and 12 months (right) following surgery, the left eye remains free of clinical signs, with normal nasolacrimal duct drainage.