4 things ticks don't want you to know...

- They can now be found in many areas across Canada.
- They start looking for a blood meal at 4°C.
- They can transmit diseases – like Lyme disease – by feeding on pets and people.
- The best time to start protecting your pet is BEFORE exposure.

MARCH IS NATIONAL TICK AWARENESS MONTH
#TickAwarenessMonth

Talk to us about tick control measures today!